There is no non-owner occupied renting or leasing for homes purchased or titles transferred after 12/07/2021

These rules below apply to eligible owners only and go into effect as soon as it is published and notification has been sent to owners, 05/08/23.

All adult occupants must be on the lease.

No short term leasing under 6 months allowed. No subletting, assignment of leases, or partial home leasing. No leasing less than the entire home is allowed.

The homeowner of current and any eligible future occupants of non-owner occupied homes must turn in a lease agreement to the Board within 10 days of execution. Those already leasing must immediately, within 7 days, turn into the Board a copy of the current lease and state the date the lease expires. The address to mail the lease copy and any other required information below is the address listed at www.ransomplacehoa.com Pay Fees/Fines Mail To Address. This can also be emailed to the HOA by requesting the email address at the website contact button.

The landlord/homeowner must also reregister the home with each new or renewed lease agreement at the website and follow the form. This will clear up any vehicle changes, names, or contact numbers, etc. for occupants that might have occurred since the last lease expired.

The homeowner must also provide the following information by the same timetable as above:

All occupants Full Names residing in the home and telephone numbers.

All vehicles driven by occupants in the home must be listed by Vehicle Operator Full Name, License Plate Number, Make of Vehicle, and Model.

The owner of the home is responsible to inform all occupants and visitors the home is within an HOA and the homeowner must explained all the rules, fines, covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including these listed, and failure to follow them could lead to fines, up to eviction by the HOA of occupants at occupants and homeowner's expense.underlined above is updated 06/22/2024

The maximum number of Vehicles allowed to be stored at the property for non-owner occupied homes is the number of vehicles the garage and driveway can accommodate.
The owner will be fined for failure to abide by or produce this required information as listed in the Fine Schedule, currently 200 Dollars/month.

18) Illegal Renting, Leasing, or Non Owner Occupation: If a non owner occupied home is rented, leased, or otherwise occupied by anyone other than the owner where the home does not qualify to be leased, rented or occupied by a non owner, the owner will be fined $5000 with an additional $1000 the 1st day of each calendar month ongoing until violation is cured. The landlord must show by physical inspection, the violation is cured to the satisfaction of the board at their discretion.

19) Landlords Readily Accessible for Communication and Resolution of Issues:

Landlords must be available and responsive within 24 hours of contact by Ransom Place HOA. Example but not limited to: extended vacations or being out of reach of normal communication or access to needed paperwork to take necessary action to solve issues with their property. Landlords must cure any violations or issues presented to them by their registered contact information within the cure or correction time or will be in violation of this rule. If a landlord is not available to make these corrections or make legal decisions pertaining to their property in Ransom Place HOA they must arrange for a local manager or company with Power of Attorney to act on their behalf. This manager or company must be registered with the Ransom Place HOA with their contact information and respond on behalf of the owner to take action to remedy any issues. The Fine for violating this rule is $1000 and repeats on the 1st day of each calendar month until resolved.

20) Communication to Board Members:

Use the contact tab at www.ransomplacehoa.com , send or leave one message if you have the contact information of a Board Member, or reply to a previous email from the board to communicate your needs. Do not show up unannounced at a Board member's home without an agreed meeting time or appointment. The Board typically needs time to gather information to properly help you with your needs. The system notifies us immediately when members send a message or request by the website. Fine $50
